- Knights Meeting - KofC Meeting: November 5th @ 7 pm.
- Beatification of Fr. Michael McGivney - Fr. Michael McGivney will be beatified October 31st at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Harford at 10 am Central Time. Visit www.kofc.org/beatification to view.
- Tootsie Roll Drive - Our drive was a great success! Thanks to all who gave of their time to staff our solicitation stations. We raised about $2,600 working at the stores and collected another $1,400 from our letter campaign to local businesses. We will decide at our November meeting as to how to allocate these funds between the State SOMO, the Cardinal Glennon Hospital in St. Louis and our local Star County Athletes.
- Celebration of 47th Anniversary of the establishment of St. Bernadette Church - This Saturday (October 31st) the Knights will hand out ink pens with an inscription of our 47th anniversary as a parish. Please wear your Red Jackets to mass for this occasion. The Knights purchased the pens for this recognition of the birth of our church.
- Novena for Life - Those who participated in the Novena For Life which was promoted by our Life Director, Herman Galli, at the last meeting, let Herman know you participated so he can make his report on this service program.
- Food for Families - We received a letter regarding the annual fundraising drive of Hickory County CARES. We generally gift them $500 each year as part of our Food for Families Service program. We will get $100 of that back in a refund. We need to vote on this opportunity.
